

Dr. Konstantinos Ferentinos was born in Ioannina Greece, where he studied Medicine. He was awarded the degree in Medicine in 2007. He was resident in the Department of Radiation Oncology at Klinikum Offenbach in Germany under the supervision of the renowned oncologist Prof. Zamboglou. His main area of interest are Interventional Radiotherapy and novel radiation techniques. In 2012 he obtained the PhD in Medicine at the Goethe University Frankfurt. From 2013 to 2015 he worked as consultant at Klinikum Offenbach, where he was responsible for the department of Stereotactic Radiotherapy. In 2016 he worked as senior consultant in the Department of Interventional Radiotherapy at the Iatriko Kentro in Athens. Since 2017 he is the head of the Department of Radiation Oncology at the German Oncology Center in Limassol. He is member of the German Stereotactic Radiotherapy Work Group and the German, Greek, European and American Radiotherapy society.